

NOVEMBER 1970

MUSEUM

The permanent display of Chinese antiquities continues unchanged.

ART GALLERY

Young Artists of Hong Kong (6th November - 2nd December)

We have invited nine artists of the younger generation to exhibit together during this month. Most of them paint in Chinese ink and, for this exhibition, all have painted on paper. Over fifty paintings will be on display and many of them are large and impressive. The artists taking part are Eddie CHEUNG Shu-sang, CHEUNG Shu-sun, Irene CHOU Lu-yun, CHUI Tze-hung, KAN Tai-keung, LEUNG Kui-ting, NG Yiu-chung, Laurence Tam and WONG Wang-fai.

Pictures of the Month (6th November - 2nd December)

As a companion to the main exhibition by young artists we are showing their paintings from our collection which we have recently purchased.

FILM PROGRAMME

Two outstanding films are presented this month. Readers who are following the present "Civilization" series by Kenneth Clark now being shown in T.V.B. will find them of particular interest.

The two films are:

- (a) Pieter Bruegel. Colour. 17 minutes. English commentary.
- (b) The Drawings of Leonardo da Vinci. Colour. 30 minutes. English commentary.

Two afternoon shows in the Lecture Room North are scheduled as follows:

Friday, 20th November 1970 at 3.30 p.m.

Friday, 27th November 1970 at 3.30 p.m.

Please note that free tickets will be available at the Museum Reception Counter one hour before each show. For group reservations please dial H-224127.
