

March 1971

MUSEUM

With six additional display cases, the permanent exhibition of Chinese antiquities has been expanded and revised. New material now on display includes lacquer of the Ching period, recent Shekwan ceramic sculpture and South-east Asian pottery. Two of the new cases are devoted to recent acquisitions which include a group of carved jades, several pottery pieces dating from the Tang to Yuan periods and a handscroll of manuscript letters by the 19th century Cantonese scholar Chu Ts'i-ch'i.

ART GALLERY

Contemporary Hong Kong Art - 5th - 31st March

In the Art Gallery this month we are showing a selection of prints, paintings and sculpture from our permanent collection of contemporary work by Hong Kong artists. This selection will form the major part of an exhibition which will be sent for display in the Commonwealth Institutes of London and Edinburgh and the City Art Galleries of Manchester and Bristol later this year.

Pictures of the Month - 1st - 31st March

Pictures of Hong Kong. Prints, drawings and paintings of Hong Kong by living artists form the companion to the main exhibition.

FILM PROGRAMME

In this month's film programme we present with the co-operation of the Consul-General of Japan two short films on architecture.

The films are:-

- (1) Architecture in Japan
- (2) Modern Architecture of Japan

Two shows will be held in the Lecture Rooms as follows:

Monday	22nd March at 3.30 p.m. - Lecture Room, South
Wednesday	24th March at 6.00 p.m. - Lecture Room, North

Please note that free tickets will be available at the Museum Reception Counter one hour before each show. For group reservations please dial H-224127.
