MUSEUM

Exhibition of Chinese Blue & White Porcelain (31 Jan to 5 March)

While blue and white porcelain from the 16th and 17th centuries dominate this special exhibition, the 132 exhibits cover a period of 500 years from the 14th to the 19th centuries. A group of underglaze red porcelain and also blue and white wares made for export are included in this exhibition.

The Oriental Ceramic Society of Hong Kong have arranged for the selection and loan of the exhibits largely from amongst the members of the Society and have produced a fully illustrated souvenir catalogue which will be on sale at the Museum priced HK$25.

ART GALLERY

Contemporary Hong Kong Art 1975 (1 Feb to 9 March)

176 works of art from 105 local artists will be shown in this exhibition. These include paintings, prints, Chinese ink paintings, calligraphy and sculpture. This is the fifth exhibition of this kind which the City Museum & Art Gallery organises every two years. It will, however, be the first time that the Urban Council Fine Art Awards will be given to artists who have submitted outstanding works to the exhibition. The exhibition will remain on view for the duration of the Hong Kong Arts Festival.
